ABSTRACT

This book surveys issues and trends in secondary education in the world today compiled from information provided by the member states of UNESCO. Six principal aspects of secondary education are the focus: objectives and functions; traditions and renovations; content and teaching; guidance and counseling; the relationship to the world of work; and the secondary school teacher. Numerous tables and figures drawn from statistical data appear throughout the volume. An appendix describing documents from the 40th session of the International Conference on Education also is included. (DB)
